

Volunteer/Member Role Description

Role: Killorglin Meals on Wheels Driver

Killorglin Community Care Centre provides in house day care for older people and support for their families. The Day Centre provides social outlet for people in the community, creating an opportunity to stay connected through social activities, friendship and knowing that they are an integral part of a caring and supportive community, thus preventing loneliness and social isolation. Care Centre also provides Meals on Wheels services for people in the community. Our staff prepares fresh food daily using locally sourced produce.

Our aim is to provide patrons with a healthy, nutritious and tasty meal each day that caters for their physical health and wellbeing. Meals on Wheels provide vital service to older people who have limited means to prepare food for themselves. The service not only provides them with nutritious food but also with important social contact with the volunteers delivering food.

Overview of the Volunteer Role

Volunteers help to deliver Meals to members of the immediate community and others living in rural and isolated areas. We can deliver up to 60 meals a day, and always bring a nutritious two course meal directly to the door of an elderly, vulnerable or isolated individual in need, helping to maintain a healthy diet for them in the later years of their lives.
